Petitioners are denied admission to LLB course for the reason that they have not produced the Degree Certificates. Petitioners submit that they have produced marklists and that on the strength of the marklists so produced, they should be given admission.

2. In my view, this issue is squarely covered by the provisions contained in the prospectus for admission to the three year LLB course 2007-08 in the Government Law Colleges in Kerala, which has been produced as Ext.P11 in WP(C) No.33581 of 2007. The relevant clause of the prospectus is extracted below for reference.

> "Clause 16: Documents to be produced at the time of Centralised Allotment Process (CAP).
>
> (i) Admit card of the Entrance Examination.
> (ii) SSLC or any relevant school records to prove date of birth.
> (iii) Original Mark lists of all parts and Provisional Degree/Degree Certificate of the Qualifying Exam with photocopies of the same.
> (iv) The originals of the certificates the copies of which had been submitted with the Application.

(v) Authorization letter in the prescribed form, given in the Annexure VII, if the candidate is not attending the CAP.

(vi) Any other documents mentioned in the Notification of CAP.

Note: All certificates as above must be produced for verification at the time of CAP itself. Candidates WILL NOT be given any chance to produce the original documents/certificates asked for, after CAP."

From the above, it is evident that in addition to the marklists, provisional degree/degree certificate of the qualifying exam with photocopies has to be produced at the time of Centralised Allotment Process itself. It is also made clear that the candidates will not be given any chance to produce the original documents after Centralised Allotment Process. In this case, it is admitted that the petitioners have not satisfied Clause 16 of the prospectus. If that be so, the respondents are right in denying their admission.

Writ petitions are devoid of merit and are dismissed.

ANTONY DOMINIC, JUDGE.
